

Printed Films and Graphics

By investing in state of the art printing technology and utilising the rapidly expanding range of films available, The Window Film Company UK Ltd are able to offer a wide range of printed films and graphics.

With a dedicated design studio, we are able to create bespoke images and designs which can in turn be printed onto a range of films suitable for your windows, glass partitions - even your walls.

The option to print on such a diverse range of films means that it is possible to effortlessly combine style and design with functionality. We are able to print on virtually any media, meaning that whatever your requirements, we can make the solution an eye-catching as well as as an effective one.

As well as the ability to print in full colour, The Window Film Company UK Ltd also prints in white ink - an option that remains rare. By incorporating white ink, designs, images and patterns can appear truly stunning.

On top of the latest equipment, we also have a dedicated design team who can help make your ideas a reality. Whether it is bringing your branding to life or coming up with a brand new, bespoke idea we have the knowledge, experience and inspiration to help.
